

Women in Sustainable Employment (WISE) Pathways

WISE Pathways is a career exploration course designed for women to explore non-traditional, in-demand jobs in the construction and energy industries. You will have the opportunity to learn about career paths in both industries, strategies in conflict management, team building, and workplace expectations; create a resume; practice online applications and interviewing; and be connected with recruiters from participating companies.

Partner employers include:

Course Dates:

January 27–31 AND February 3–4

Course Schedule:

9:00am–4:00pm

Location:

Northern Virginia Community College—Arlington Center

4600 N. Fairfax Drive

Arlington, VA

(nearest Metro stop is Ballston Station)

 Lunch will be provided daily as well as a transportation stipend.*

Focus careers include:

- Damage Prevention Technician / Utility Locator
- Helper Mechanic
- Laborer
- Line Mechanic Trainee
- Helper Substation Technician

Minimum requirements for energy and construction employment opportunities:

- High school diploma or GED
- Drug-free
- Valid driver's license
- Interest in craft/technician work
- Enjoy at least some level of physical labor
- Six months of experience in craft/technician or similar work (including other industries)

